BEAUTIFUL FOOD & WINE IN AN INTIMATE SETTING

If you're celebrating an occasion that requires a degree of intimacy, elegance and sophistication you'd be hard pressed to find a better venue than Launceston Place. Our Head Chef Ben Murphy is continuously working with the best produce Britain has to offer to create an ever-evolving flamboyant and inspired modern European menu.

Adorning the walls of Launceston Place are a series of bespoke artworks from leading contemporary artists, carefully curated by Amar Gallery to complement the ambience of the restaurant design. Inspired by Ben's creative flair and his menu, the collection combines figurative expression with peaceful minimalism, providing visual assurance to the unique culinary experience on offer.

Expect to be charmed as soon as you catch a glimpse of its stunning façade, which is tucked away on its namesake street, Launceston Place, in South Kensington.

With a wonderfully elegant and intimate feel and welcoming banquette seating, this hidden gem, set within a former townhouse, is the ideal setting for a bespoke private dining or group experience.

PRIVATE DINING

Arguably one of the best dining rooms in London, our unique “Chef’s Table” offers a truly exclusive gastronomic experience. The private room is located directly adjacent to the kitchen, giving guests an insight into one of most talked about kitchens.
